Before You Start this chapter, make a copy of your project, and always remember this rule, always make a copy of your project before adding 3RD party plugins in your project, because they can mess things up. And also when you make one plugin work, then make a copy of the project and then add a new plugin in your project, because if one plugin works the other might not, so remember this.